

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

U.S. NAVAL BASE, PEARL HARBOR, PAINT & OIL
STOREHOUSE

HABS HI-449

(U.S. Naval Base, Pearl Harbor, Naval Shipyard, Facility No. 27)

Avenue D near Seventh Street intersection

Pearl Harbor

Honolulu County

Hawaii

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

David Franzen, photographer, January 2001

- | | |
|----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| HI-449-1 | Overall contextual view of Facility 27, "Avenue D" in foreground, Facility 90 to the left, Building 155 behind, exterior oblique view of Facility 27 from outside fence, taken from Building 167 |
| HI-449-2 | Exterior oblique view of east end and south side with doors and raised platform, stack beyond, view facing northwest |
| HI-449-3 | Exterior oblique view of south (front) side, eight doors open, "Supply Dept. SS-19", "27" on left edge, view facing east |
| HI-449-4 | South side view of bay section with two doors and windows, view facing north |
| HI-449-5 | View of east end showing concrete building with steel addition, stack behind, Facility 155 to right, view facing west-northwest |
| HI-449-6 | Exterior oblique view of north side along screened lanai through anchor link fence, view facing west |
| HI-449-7 | Interior of bay on east end showing two entry doors on south side looking towards Facility 64, view facing west-southwest |
| HI-449-8 | Interior bay with door to rear lanai double doors, view facing north-northeast |

U.S. NAVAL BASE, PEARL HARBOR, PAINT & OIL

HABS HI-449

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

PAGE 2

HI-449-9

Interior of screened lanai with self-closing sliding door and steel roof support, view facing west